

Rip off the knob

Well if she's drivin' you to work or you're headin' to the club and you hear that special song that you both really love

You pull your best girl close and tell her how you feel and then you kiss her on time so she knows it's really real and when the music's that good you don't even have to ask

rip off the knob and beat on the dash

Well when you're runnin' with your lover on a Saturday night you're punchin' buttons on the dial cause it's gotta be right.

You got your car shined up and the ragtop down you're playin' power country music while you're cruisin' through town.

Yeah your baby's lookin' sexy this moment has to last

rip off the knob and beat on the dash

Rip, rip it off, rip, rip, rip it off

Well when you're parked at the beach on a near perfect night and the stage has been set for a party in the moonlight.

Well when the drums begin to pound and you're dancin' with your friends and you don't expect you're ever gonna feel this good again and then the DJ says call in to win some cash.
